OFFICE MEMORANDUM

To: Capt Fritz

Subject: Information

Chief Stevenson received a call from Mrs. Luckey, 501 N. Lancaster WH2 7279 who stated she had a maid that had worked for JACK RUFY AS A MAID AT HIS RESIDENCE Apt ~~223~~ 207, 223 N. Marsalis.

Detective W. E. Douglas contacted Mrs Luckey and the maid, Elnora PITTS WH2 5441. Mrs Luckey requested that she be contacted if any one wanted to talk to the maid.

~~XXXX~~ Elnora Pitts told Detective Douglas "She cleaned Rubinsteins Apartment about once a week. Has been employed by him for about 7 months.

Only visitors he had was a couple of women, that to her knowledge he never drank, even though there was always some in the apartment. That a man known to her as George visited often then finally moved in the same apartment with Rubenstein. She has never seen books or literature of any kind other than business cards. A front closet was always locked. She did not know what was in same. Subject always paid her promptly and on one occassion loaned her money. ~~XXXXX~~
